

VISIT VISA SERVICES

Visit Visa Requirements & Application Support

A practical guide for Kenyan applicants travelling to the United States, United Kingdom, Schengen countries, Canada or Australia for tourism, family visits or short business trips.

ONE FEE. NOTHING ELSE TO PAY.

Our visit visa fee is all-inclusive. It covers document preparation, the visa fee, biometrics fees and travel insurance, so you make a single payment to Millennia.

Choose your service

1 | FIRST-TIME APPLICANTS AND APPLICANTS NEVER REFUSEDKES 100,000 all-inclusive

For anyone applying for the first time, or who has never had a visa refused for any country.

2 | RE-APPLICATION AFTER A PREVIOUS REFUSALKES 150,000 all-inclusive

For applicants who have been refused before. We review the refusal reasons and rebuild a stronger application.

Both options include

- Document preparation and a personalised checklist
- Completion of application forms and your supporting file
- The official visa application fee
- Biometrics fees
- Travel insurance where required, for example Schengen
- Guidance on appointments and what to expect at any interview
- Updates until a decision is issued

NOT INCLUDED

Flight tickets and accommodation payments, medical or TB tests (only where a country requests them), translation or notarisation, optional courier or premium processing, and any new government charge introduced after your quotation. We will tell you before it applies.

Your written quotation confirms exactly what is covered. Please disclose any previous refusal so we can quote correctly. Do not buy non-refundable flights or pay for accommodation before your visa is issued.

GENERAL CHECKLIST

Documents for Kenyan visit visa applicants

Use this as a preparation checklist. Each country sets its own rules, so not every item is needed everywhere. Millennia will confirm your exact list for the destination you choose.

A. Passport and identity

- Valid Kenyan passport with at least two blank pages. Many destinations expect validity well beyond your return date (Schengen: at least three months after you leave).
- Old passports that contain previous visas or entry and exit stamps.
- National ID card. For children: birth certificate, parents' IDs and written consent from both parents where required.
- A recent digital passport photo that meets the destination's specifications.

B. Purpose of travel

- A clear travel plan: dates, cities and activities.
- Flight and accommodation reservations for the whole stay, or an invitation letter from your host.
- Visiting family or friends: invitation letter, your host's ID or immigration status, proof of address and proof of relationship.
- Business or conference visits: invitation letter from the organiser or company and your registration confirmation.

C. Funds to cover the trip

- Recent bank statements (usually the last six months) showing regular income and a healthy balance.
- Employed: employment letter, payslips and approved leave.
- Business owners: business registration, CR12 for companies, KRA PIN and tax returns, and business bank statements.
- If someone else pays: sponsorship letter, their ID, their bank statements and proof of your relationship.

D. Ties to Kenya

- Employment letter confirming your position, leave dates and return date. Students: school letter and term dates.
- Property documents such as a title deed or lease, business ownership, and evidence of family and other commitments at home.

E. Travel history and other items

- Copies of previous visas and stamps, especially for the US, UK, Schengen area, Canada and Australia.
- Details of any previous visa refusal or immigration issue. Always disclose these.
- Police clearance certificate or medical examination, only if the destination requests it.
- Biometrics (fingerprints and photograph) at the designated visa centre or embassy.
- Travel insurance, included in your fee where it is required.

IMPORTANT: consistency beats volume

Documents must be genuine and tell one consistent story. Forged, altered or borrowed documents can lead to refusal and a ban on future applications. Include only what supports your case.

DESTINATIONS AT A GLANCE

COUNTRY GUIDE

United States of America

Typical route: B-1 (business) or B-2 (tourism) visitor visa

What Kenyan applicants should prepare

- Valid passport and a completed DS-160 application. We complete it with you so every answer matches your documents.
- A digital photo that meets the DS-160 specifications, and the DS-160 confirmation page.
- Appointment booking for biometrics and the interview at the US Embassy in Nairobi, using your visa fee payment receipt.
- Evidence of the purpose of your trip, a realistic itinerary and proof of who is paying.
- Strong evidence of ties to Kenya: employment or business, property, family and past travel.
- Readiness to answer interview questions clearly about your trip, funding and plans to return.

COUNTRY-SPECIFIC POINTS TO CHECK

- Most first-time applicants attend an in-person interview. Since 1 October 2025 the interview waiver is limited mainly to certain renewals of recently expired visitor visas.
- US law presumes every visitor may intend to stay. You must show convincing reasons to return to Kenya.
- A US$250 Visa Integrity Fee has been legislated. Collection had not been confirmed when we last checked, and we will advise you before any such charge applies.
- The US visa bond programme applies to listed countries. Kenya was not on the published list when we last checked, but the list can change.

COUNTRY GUIDE

United Kingdom

Typical route: Standard Visitor visa (up to 6 months)

What Kenyan applicants should prepare

- Valid passport with a blank page, valid for your whole stay. Kenyan citizens always need a visa; the UK ETA is not available to them.
- Online application on GOV.UK, then biometrics at the UK visa application centre in Kenya.
- Evidence of funds to cover your stay and return journey, plus a clear itinerary and accommodation details.
- Visiting family or friends: invitation letter and your host's details and proof of address.
- Evidence of employment or business, family and other ties that show you will leave the UK at the end of your visit.
- Details of previous travel and any earlier refusals.

COUNTRY-SPECIFIC POINTS TO CHECK

- Decisions are usually made on paper within about three weeks of biometrics, and the application is normally assessed without an interview.
- Approved visas are issued digitally (eVisa) and linked to your UKVI account, so we help you set it up correctly.
- Frequent travellers may consider a long-term visitor visa of 2, 5 or 10 years.
- A TB test is normally required only for stays of more than six months.

Official guidance: GOV.UK, Standard Visitor visa: <https://www.gov.uk/standard-visitor>

COUNTRY GUIDE

Schengen Area

Typical route: Short-stay Schengen visa, Type C (up to 90 days in any 180 days)

What Kenyan applicants should prepare

- Apply to the embassy or visa centre of the country where you will spend the most nights (or your first entry point if equal). Your visa is valid across the Schengen area.
- Passport valid at least three months after you leave Schengen, with two blank pages, issued within the last 10 years.
- Completed Schengen application form and, where requested, a recent photo.
- Travel medical insurance of at least EUR 30,000 valid in all Schengen countries for your whole stay. This is included in your fee.
- Itinerary, flight reservation and accommodation for the entire stay.
- Proof of funds, plus employment or business documents (employment letter, KRA PIN, CR12 or business permit).
- Biometrics at the visa centre. Fingerprints already on file within the last 59 months can often be reused.

COUNTRY-SPECIFIC POINTS TO CHECK

- Each Schengen country publishes its own checklist, so we choose the right embassy and tailor your file to it.
- You can usually apply up to six months before travel.
- Older guides quote a higher insurance minimum. The current EU minimum is EUR 30,000.
- A Schengen visa does not cover the UK, Ireland or other non-Schengen countries.

Official guidance: German Embassy Nairobi, Schengen visa for tourism: <https://nairobi.diplo.de/ke-en/service/visa-entry/2743146-2743146> (checklists differ by destination country)

COUNTRY GUIDE

Canada

Typical route: Visitor visa (Temporary Resident Visa, TRV)

What Kenyan applicants should prepare

- Valid passport and a digital photo that meets IRCC specifications.
- Online application through your IRCC secure account. We prepare the answers and uploads with you.
- Biometrics at the Canada visa application centre in Nairobi. Biometrics are valid for 10 years once given.
- Purpose of visit and itinerary. If visiting family or friends, an invitation letter and proof of your host's status in Canada.
- Evidence of funds, employment or business, and ties that show you will return to Kenya.
- Travel history. A medical examination or police certificate only if requested.

COUNTRY-SPECIFIC POINTS TO CHECK

- Kenyan citizens need a visa. The Canadian eTA is for visa-exempt nationalities and does not apply.
- Processing times vary with volume, and the clock starts after biometrics are given.
- Government fees are generally not refunded if an application is refused, so a complete file at submission matters.
- The officer decides the visa's validity and whether it allows multiple entries.

Official guidance: IRCC, Visit Canada: <https://www.canada.ca/en/immigration-refugees-citizenship/services/visit-canada.html>

COUNTRY GUIDE

Australia

Typical route: Visitor visa (subclass 600), Tourist stream applied for from outside Australia

What Kenyan applicants should prepare

- Valid passport and an online application through ImmiAccount, with documents uploaded clearly and in full.
- Evidence that you are a genuine visitor: purpose of travel, itinerary, and reasons to return to Kenya.
- Proof of funds, such as bank statements and employment or business documents. If someone pays for you, their financial evidence and a sponsorship letter.
- Invitation letter and your host's details if visiting family or friends in Australia.
- Travel history and details of any previous refusals.
- Health or police clearance and biometrics only if the Department requests them.

COUNTRY-SPECIFIC POINTS TO CHECK

- Incomplete applications can be refused or delayed, so every requested document should be uploaded on submission.
- You cannot work on this visa, and a visitor visa cannot normally be extended once you are in Australia.
- Overseas visitor health insurance is strongly advised, and the length of stay is set on the visa grant.

Official guidance: Australian Department of Home Affairs, Visitor visa (subclass 600): <https://immi.homeaffairs.gov.au/visas/getting-a-visa/visa-listing/visitor-600>

Requirements depend on the applicant, purpose of travel and current rules. Always confirm the live official checklist before submitting.

FROM ENQUIRY TO DECISION

How the process works

01 Profile review

We review your purpose of travel, destination, dates, travel history, work or business and funds.

03 Payment and confirmation

You pay Millennia using the M-PESA Till on the last page and send us the confirmation code.

05 Forms and file preparation

We complete the application, cover letter and supporting file for your destination.

07 You attend your appointment

You give biometrics and attend any interview. We prepare you for what to expect.

02 Quotation

You receive a written quotation at the fixed all-inclusive fee: KES 100,000, or KES 150,000 for a re-application after a refusal.

04 Document checklist

We give you a personalised list. You collect your documents and we review them for gaps and inconsistencies.

06 Insurance and appointments

We arrange travel insurance where required and guide you through appointment booking.

08 Decision and next steps

The embassy decides. We share updates and explain what to do once your passport is returned.

Your responsibilities

- Provide accurate, genuine documents and disclose any previous refusals or immigration history.
- Respond promptly to requests so we can meet your travel dates.
- Attend your biometrics appointment and any interview in person, with the originals we ask for.
- Review your application details before submission and tell us about any change in your circumstances.
- Keep flights and accommodation refundable until your visa is issued.

Important service terms

- No guarantee of visa approval or processing time. Embassies and immigration authorities make every decision.
- Visa fees are set by governments and are generally not refunded by the issuing authority, whatever the decision. Refund terms for Millennia's service fee are in your written agreement.
- Government rules, required documents, fees and financial thresholds can change. The current official instructions and your own checklist take precedence over this general guide.
- Millennia is an independent consultancy. It is not an embassy, immigration authority or visa centre.
